Sal:
Before long you'll be leaving the protection of your old friends to enter into that togetherness thing called "marriage!" When you do, you'll be leaving behind you a person who always considered you a friend — but I'd like more than that. I only wish we could have more time to relive those unforgettable times that we have spent together — both us girls. Some people I'll always remember, you among them. Just a few months ago we had a wonderful time — and you're one of them. I only wish I could be with you all the time to help you with all the problems that are bound to arise. Just remember, I'll always be here if you need me. Please don't forget me after June 15 because I'll never forget you and I hope to remain forever your best friend. Bless you always, and if that guy doesn't love you right, come on back to me — we still want you.
Love and luck,

Dedication

In dedicating this 1957 edition of the Southite we feel it is only proper to offer this book to South High--its past and its future.

Fifty-two years have elapsed since the construction of the "old" building. With the close of this school year, Providence willing, this building will be replaced by the long awaited addition.

This old building has served students from every walk of life. Its alumni include congressmen, educators, sportsmen, professional men, homemakers and--just plain good citizens.

What is in store for South High? We know that the new construction, designed to be sleek and modern, is greatly needed. But we hope that the caliber of students and the type of instruction will remain the same.

The school year 1956–57 has been exciting and rewarding for students and faculty alike.

The Homecoming coronation and dance on November 9 were the first big social events of the season.

"A Night on Broadway" was presented by the First Choir on November 15 and 16. The show tunes were taken from three current Broadway hits, and audience approval acclaimed the production a big success.

On December 16 the first performance of our yuletide program, "Music and the Spoken Word" was presented by the Fine Arts Department.

After returning to school following Christmas vacation, students resumed the flurry of activities accompanying senior elections. In this year's balloting 36 seniors vied for six class offices.

The second term began with the usual excitement of new classes, but it also brought a melancholy note for the 501 seniors who were beginning their last semester of high school.

February was high-lighted with the 14th Annual Military Ball. Suspense filled weeks ended with the announcement of the lieutenant colonel and his lady on February 15.

"Around the World in 80 Minutes" was presented by an all-school cast on March 28 and 29. This 1957 Sound Off took the audience on an imaginary tour through foreign countries by way of their songs and dances.

The All-City Music Festival, March 16; the Spring Play, May 2 and 3; and the Spring Concert all hurried by as the final weeks of school drew to a close.

Our athletic departments deserve special credit for the fine performances turned in this year.

The Packer reserve football team brought home the intercity championship. The varsity squad turned in an excellent season of play, finishing the year's competition in third place in both intercity and state ranks.

In basketball competition, our basketeers ended a successful season by fighting their way to the runner-up spot in the Intercity League and the second round of the Regional Tournament.

Extra praise, however, goes to our outstanding wrestling team. At the close of the season, South held the North High Invitational, the Intercity League and the State titles. We placed six state champions and broke the all time scoring record for Nebraska high schools by totaling 114 points during the State tourney.

The social year came to a close with the Senior Prom at Peony Park, leaving only baccalaureate and graduation for our seniors.

Accompanying us throughout this year were the hopes and plans for our new building. Though the '57 seniors will not be able to enjoy the many modern facilities it will offer, we hope that all future Packers will make the most of them.

Commencement night, 1957, will be the beginning of a new phase of life for our graduates. The doors on the "old" building will close for the last time, opening a new era for our alma mater.

TO OUR SENIORS:

When one approaches the conclusion of a span of time, he pauses in retrospect to think again on those things which hold meaning for him. Just so you, who are among the last to tread the halls of "old" South High, find it most appropriate to reflect not alone on your high school days, but on the tradition and rich heritage of which our old building should remind us.

Many generations have preceded you but none with greater opportunities than yours. If our "old building" could speak it could tell the story of true democracy; the welding of the richness of many lands into that America which is ours. But, more specifically, it would tell of the privilege you have in living in a nation which makes possible the education of all its youth.

However, it would hasten to say that you alone can educate yourselves. The processes of education are only as effective as you make them. While schools of today are better than they ever have been, you are not educated if you merely expose yourselves to them. After all, knowledge is a potential the magnitude of which depends solely upon what you put into it. It is not created without work being done.

Advice would then be added, for our old building would have much to give; it has seen many young men and women depart to take their places as builders in our land.

First it would advise that learning is a constant process which does not end with a diploma. But learning alone is not enough; it must be put to use constructively if its purposes would be achieved.

Next, very pointedly, it would give a word of encouragement as it has in the past to the many who have gone before. You must find in yourselves the confidence and courage to avoid self-pity and self-excuse and to know the problems of your day for the conquerable things they are. You face no problems that cannot be solved provided you do not give up. Prophets of doom will always be wrong as long as there are young men and women with the courage, the confidence, the energy and the faith to stand up boldly to the responsibilities of their times.

Then, finally, we add our sincere good wishes; and your school, which has been so much a part of your life, looks forward with you to a bright future, anchored firmly in those ideals which are our heritage from the richness of the past.

Not pictured are Miss Elinor Bennett, who teaches physical education; Miss Ruth Milford, English; Miss Margaret Power and Miss Florence Rush, social studies; and Clifford J. Ireland, mathematics and science.

Miss Alice Harvey, who retired at the end of the first semester after 40½ years of teaching, had taught business subjects at South since 1922.

Assisting the Southite faculty is the clerical staff shown above. From left to right, seated, are Mrs. Carolyn Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy Young, Miss Betty Gudgell and Mrs. Celia Svoboda; standing, Mrs. Betty J. Croft and Miss Barbara J. Krupski. Miss Amelia Mangan, South High secretary, is not pictured.

Assistant Principal
Howard R. Sorensen

Director of Guidance Services, Athletics, Student Activities and Attendance is Assistant Principal Howard R. Sorensen, who does much for South High by editing the actions and pursuits of the student body.

Counselors

When the counselors lift the cover of the Album of Life for all South High students, they paste in constructive ideas, jobs, securities, and mend the torn pages of personal problems, which might otherwise go unheeded.

They help the students plan a curricular program that is best suited to their individual interests and abilities.

These dedicated members of the faculty contribute a great deal to the building of good character and the preparation of the students for the pages before them which are still unfilled.

Conferring on the subject of "Stay in School" are the boys' counselors, standing, left to right: Dale Marcum and Donald W. Ruby; seated: Warren Witham, Loren Gammon, C. A. Sheets and Charles B. Drake. Mr. Marcum is in charge of the freshmen; Mr. Ruby, seniors; Mr. Witham, sophomores; and Mr. Gammon, juniors. Mr. Sheets and Mr. Drake, veteran boys' counselors, guide Southites from the dean's office.

Miss Suzanne Nelson, head senior sponsor, is shown checking the list of her 501 candidates for graduation.

Graduates of 1957, may you ever maintain and utilize the knowledge and understandings which have been so much a part of you and your education at South High School.

Always be aware of the importance of the philosophies which are a part of knowledge.

To be kind reaps much reward.
To be sincere brings peace of mind to thyself.
To be tolerant has the aspects of greatness.
To love life brings great joy.
To have faith holds promise of true happiness.

May you all experience success, a sense of achievement and happiness.

Senior Sponsors

Class Officers

We, the senior officers of 1957, hope that our class has set an example of fine conduct, good sportsmanship and high scholastic standing for future graduating classes to respect.

As your elected senior representatives, it was our job to help plan the many senior activities. We did our best for you.

We would like to thank our sponsors and the entire faculty who were always so willing to aid us in our work.

We hope that the young men and women of future years will realize the educational values they have received and the importance of the social life they have experienced in high school.

To the seniors of tomorrow, we express our wishes for a successful life, and to our own classmates, we extend all of our sincere wishes for a rich and happy future.

Library Service League

The Library Service League is composed of students who volunteer their study periods to work in the library.

Taking attendance, door monitoring, shelving books, working in the office and at the two desks are only a few of the tasks the students perform around the library.

A cabinet of six members is elected each semester. They, in turn, appoint students to the other six posts. The highest honor in the Library Service League is that of Head Door Monitor. Karen Murnan held this position the first semester and was succeeded by Owen Johnson for the second term.

Second Row, Mary Alice Ojeski, Peter Quintero, Helen Shuput, Geraldine Brandt, Marlene Policky and Judy Schon;
Third Row, Dorothy Kuklinski, Lolly Linneman, Mary May, Shirley Erb, Beverly Weerts, Shirley Fonfara, Carol Prazon and Mary Ann Placzek;
Fourth Row, Joyce Twyman, Judy Crayne, Connie Richardson, Jo Ann Hendriks, Karen Christensen and Sandra Krajicek;
Fifth Row, Shirley Reynek, Ruth Pedersen, Sharon Skocz, Jo Ann Will, Evelyn Potach, Judy Schroeder and Barbara Abboud.

First semester officers were Connie Mitchell, president; Lorraine Zpevak, vice president; Mickey Brown, secretary; Sandra Hoeft, treasurer; and Clem Kisicki, Tooter reporter. Second semester officers were Connie Mitchell, president; Lorraine Zpevak, vice president; Doreen Bartasky, secretary; Connie Kostos, treasurer; and Phyllis Parrill, Tooter reporter.

The officers were also delegates to the Intra-city Library Assistance Council made up of library workers from all the Omaha schools.

Among other activities were a Christmas Party and a spring picnic.

Sponsor of this group is Mrs. Inez Sherman, librarian.

First Row: Sharon Sempek, Jean Weiss, Joyce Navratil, Joan Wesolowski, Patricia Baker, Connie Mitchell, Phyllis Pavel, Beverly Yost;
Second Row: Delores Sterba, Kathleen Mudra, Nancy Krause, Jean Seibel, Jeanne Kurtz, Karen Smith, Sharon Klepper, Caroll Fritz, Mary Ann Kastner, Joann Galloway, Pat Urzendowski, Coach Raymond Elwell;
Third Row: Dave Sidlinger, Rich Donaldson, Lee Soukup, Ed Tibbetts, Lee Preston and Don Dunshee.

Debate

The object of Debate is to make the participant a clear, fast thinker and a good speaker. Besides debating, extemporaneous and prepared oratory are a main part of the Debate Club activities. The outstanding contests of the year are the Boys', Girls', and Open Missouri Valley tournaments, which determine the regional champions.

The South High Debate squad is composed of twenty-six members and coached by social studies instructor Raymond Elwell.

Connie Mitchell is president of the club. Joan Wesolowski serves as vice president, and Patricia Baker acts as secretary and treasurer. Joyce Navratil is the Tooter reporter.

VARSITY

Football Resume

Coach Cletus Fischer's varsity squad proved to be the best Packer team since 1946, as they piled up a record of six wins and two losses.

Touchdowns by Larry Milton and Vic Shukis were of no avail as South lost its season opener to the Creighton Prep Blue Jays by a score of 26–13. Milton scored his touchdown from the 20–yard line, and Shukis ran over from the one, with Neil McAndrews kicking the one extra point in the September 14 contest.

Central's was the first team to meet the chopping block on September 21, as the Packers dug in and really went to work. Fullback Vic Shukis and halfback Tom Taylor led the powerful ground attack that swamped the Eagles, 19–7. The first touchdown was accomplished by Vic Shukis with a plunge from the two–yard line in the second quarter. Taylor topped off a sustained 80–yard drive later in the same quarter, and Neil McAndrews kicked the only Packer conversion in the game. Quick-thinking center Lou Costanzo intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter on the 46, setting up Tom Taylor's second touchdown of the game.

Halfback Tom Taylor was the standout of the Benson game. He scored the first three touchdowns as the Packers completely whitewashed the Benson Bunnies. Vic Shukis scored the fourth touchdown with a run from the 36–yard line. Jim Curran drove across the goalline for the only extra point in the September 28 game to bring the score to 25–0.

On October 6, South entered the game with Tech as an underdog, but the Packers soon showed the forecasters that they were mistaken. Shukis climaxed a 65–yard drive with a plunge from the 6–yard line to score the first touchdown in the game. Tom Taylor made two outstanding touchdown runs, one of 63 yards and the other of 44. Gary Plambeck trapped a Trojan behind the goal line to add two more points. The longest run in the game occurred when quarterback Jerry Gould brought the score to its final 33–0 as he received a kick-off on the South 30–yard line and ran 70 yards to score.

Less than three minutes after the beginning of the game with Tee Jay on October 13, Tom Taylor took a punt on the South 30–yard line and outwitted the entire Yellow Jacket defense as he went all the way for a touchdown. Still in the first quarter Larry Milton ended a 55–yard drive with a two–yard touchdown plunge. Grabbing a pitch out on the 10–yard line, Larry Kozeny went on to score the third touchdown in the third quarter, giving the Packers a 19–0 lead. A pass from Jerry Gould to Gary Plambeck in the last 15 seconds of the game brought the score to 26–0.

Mike Ramirez

Lincoln Central was allowed only one touchdown as the Packers stopped them 26–7 on October 26. Larry Milton scored his third touchdown of the season as a climax to an 84-yard drive. Tom Taylor made another outstanding run in the second quarter as he dodged through Lincoln tacklers for 70-yards and a touchdown; minutes later Richard Brown made his first score of the season on a quick 28-yard run. Larry Kozeny kicked the extra point to give the Packers a 20–7 lead. Vic Shukis added the last six points when he scored the final touchdown from the five-yard line.

The Lynx of Council Bluffs could not muster enough strength to stop the Red and White team as the Packers rolled over Abraham Lincoln on November 2, 28–0. Fumbles were costly to the Lynx as Larry Kozeny picked up one on the 39-yard line in the first quarter to set up the first South touchdown drive, and Rich Brown scored from the 20-yard line as he grabbed another fumble. Richard Brown scored again in the fourth quarter on a pass from Jerry Gould to make it 20–0. Vic Shukis staged an amazing show of power as he rambled 20-yards in two plays for the fourth and final tally of the game.

Although the Packers scored the first touchdown with a 12-yard pass from Jerry Gould to Mike Mancuso, they were unable to retain their lead as the North Vikings went ahead to win by a margin of 27–7 in the final game of the season on November 9. The South line was unable to halt North champions, as they scored the 27 points that gave them the Intercity League championship.

Vic Shukis was a standout of the season, for he was awarded berths on the Omaha World-Herald All-City and All-State teams and also was placed on the first team of the Lincoln Journal Star's All-State selections. Mike Ramirez received the position as tackle on the World-Herald All-City team and was placed on the Lincoln Journal Star's All-State team.

Reserve Football

Two newcomers to the Packer mentor staff started their careers at South High very well as they led the Reserve football squad through an undefeated season to the Inter-city Championship.

Coach Edward Mandl and Line Coach Robert Murray had reason to be proud of their team and especially stars Bob Nano, John Faiman, Rich Hellwig, Gary Albin and Ron Taylor.

Six of seven opponents were completely blanked as the Packer defense proved to be very apt at guarding its own goal line.

Running from a straight "T" formation the Red and White offense was soon found to have more than enough power as they scored at least two touchdowns in each game and ended the season with 135 points.

A good start on the road to the league crown was made by the Junior Packers as they dropped Benson, Central, Tech and Abraham Lincoln by scores of 13–0, 25–0, 13–0 and 20–0, respectively. The Little Vikings of North High made the Southites stumble momentarily as they scored the only points made against the South Reserves all season, but the Packers forged ahead to take the game 13–12 and save their winning streak. Creighton Prep fell 31–0 the following week, and Thomas Jefferson contributed to make it a perfect season by tumbling 20–0.

"I was very gratified with the record the team made through the year. The way the boys co-operated with everybody may have helped a great deal with their success," stated Line Coach Murray at the close of the season.

Coach Mandl added, "The secret of the team's success was consistant hard play and the eagerness to win."

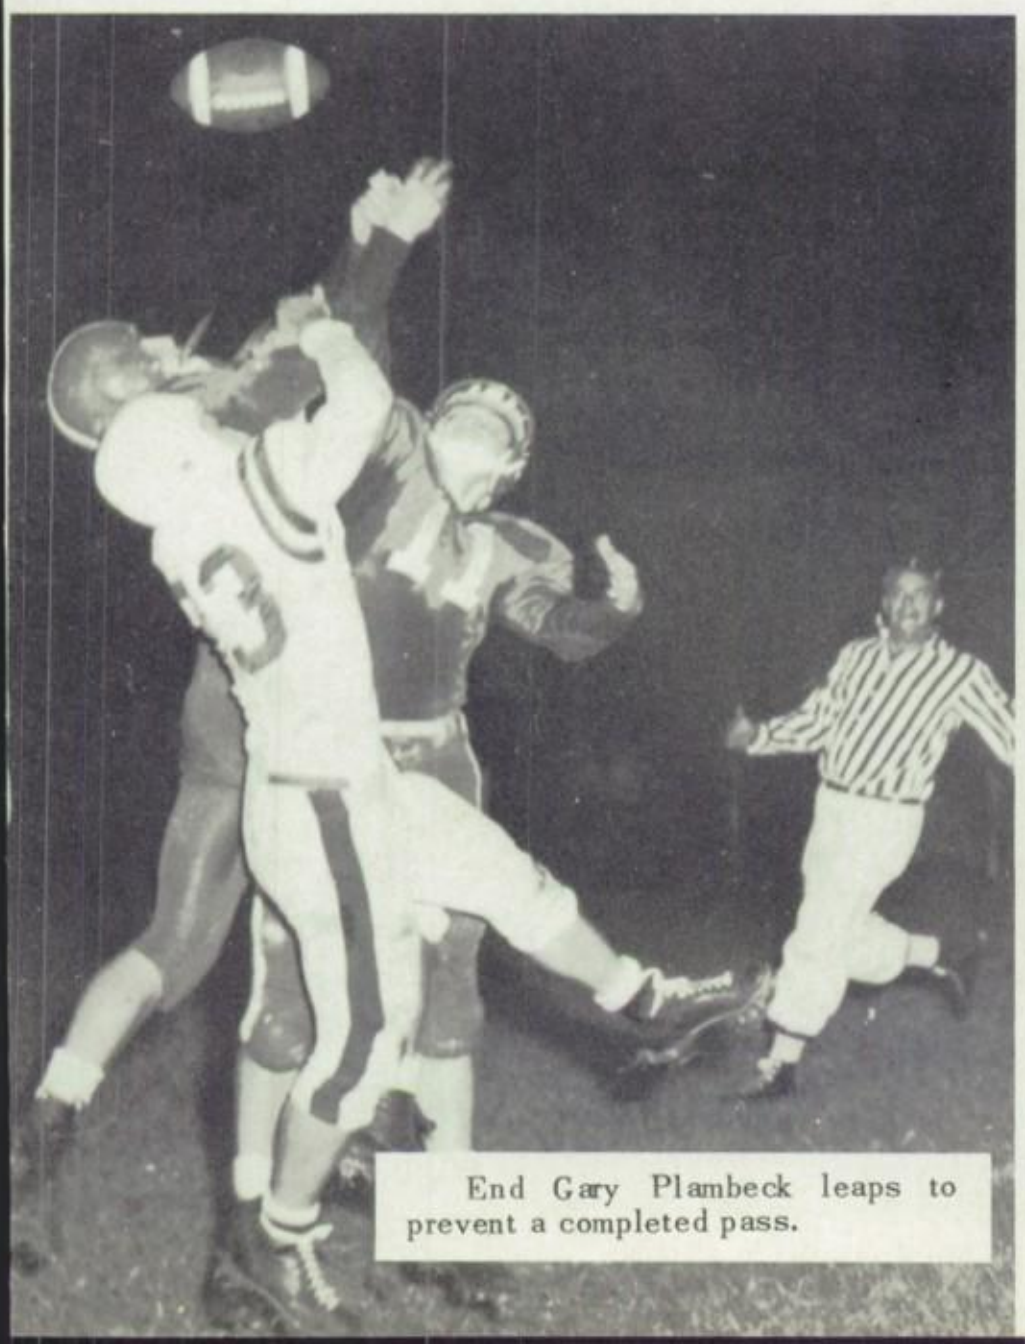
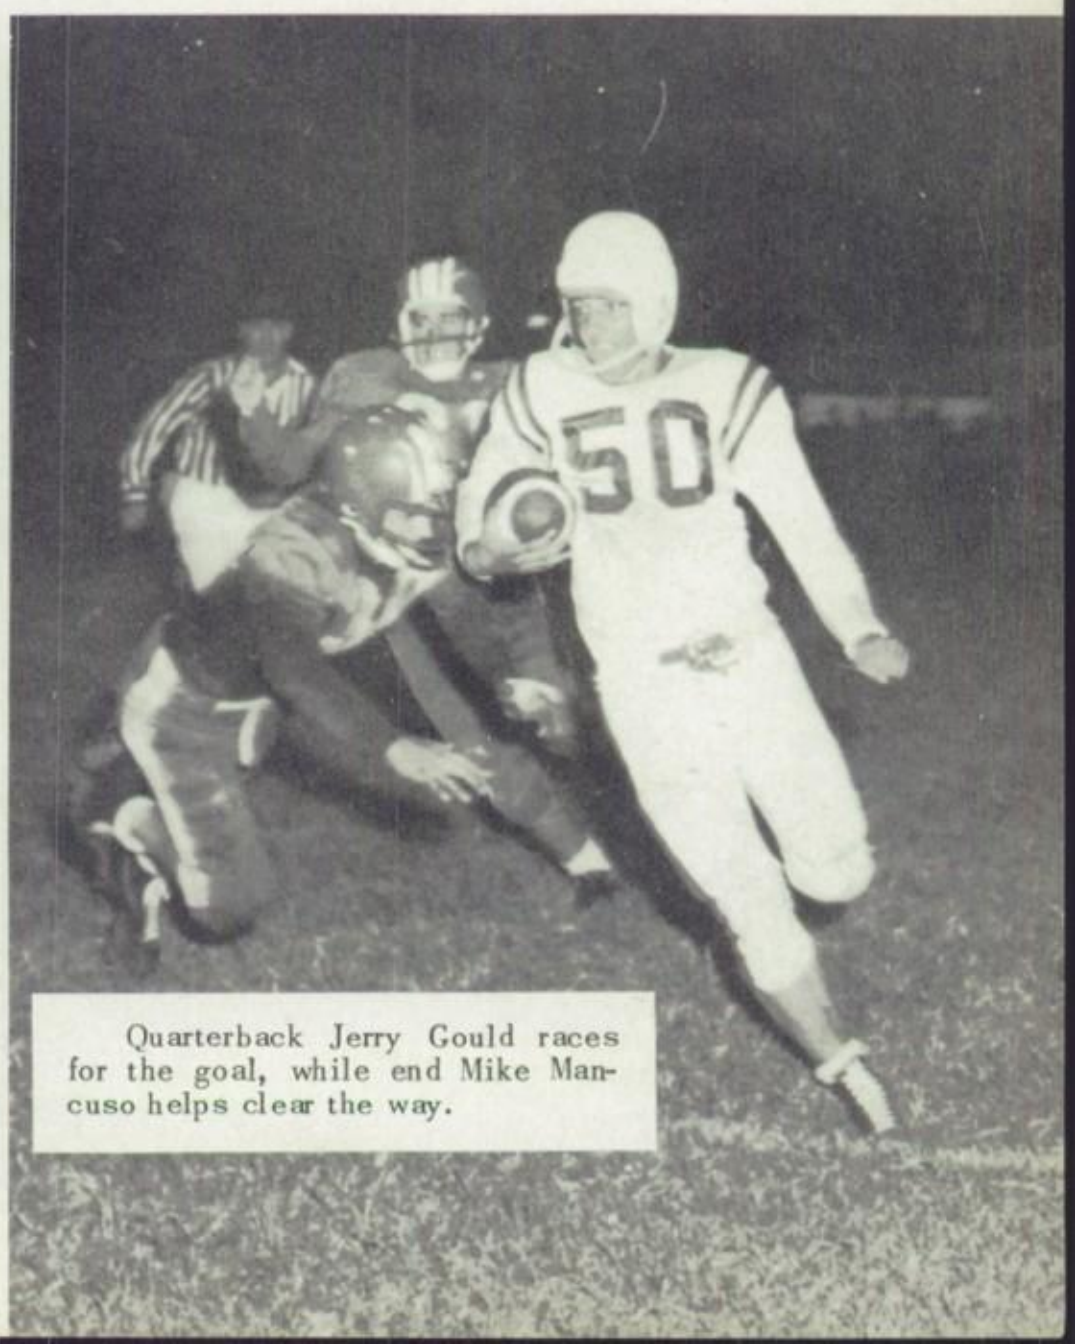
Freshman Football

"This year's Packer Freshman team has shown good potential and will be excellent Varsity material in the next few years," commented Coach Mickey Sparano of his 1956 squad.

They have speed and power, so watch out, all other high schools. Here they come.



End Gary Plambeck leaps to prevent a completed pass.



Quarterback Jerry Gould races for the goal, while end Mike Mancuso helps clear the way.

Basketball

Much to the delight of Packer fans and the sorrow of their opponents, the South cagers fought their way to second place in the Intercity League. Only Thomas Jefferson bettered their record of 12 wins and four losses. Benson was forced to surrender their December 15 game to the Red and White on a forfeit.

Bill Pickering, Heavyweight State Champion.

South High's wrestling team, which this season won the North High Invitational Tournament, the Inter-city League title and the State championship, also broke the all-time local scoring record and placed six state winners, more than any other school in Nebraska history.

Robert Prucha, Richard Brown, Clinton Meehan, George Wright, Jack Philby and Bill Pickering were the Packer Individual champions, but Coach Mickey Sparano termed the State tournament, held on February 22 and 23, a team victory for South. He explained that the boys were determined to come through.

According to pre-tourney ratings, South, North and Central were expected to be close; in fact, North was figured to have a slight edge.

The boys who carried the load for the Packers throughout the year won again in the State meet, held at Tech High.

According to Coach Sparano, the South wrestlers had a good season. He commented that the team worked as a unit throughout the year.

Richard Brown, 127, and George Wright, 138, the key wrestlers, were moved up on several occasions to meet the power of other teams.

Clinton Meehan, 133, and Jack Philby, 145, were steady winners in their respective weights, and they were called on many times to move up and compete against heavier boys.

Bob Prucha, 103, and Joe Pirrone, 127, finished, with a perfect season. Pirrone, a substitute under Richard Brown, was overweight for the first weigh of the year, and, therefore, he could wrestle only when Brown was moved out of his regular division.

Richard Newville climaxed the season with a pin over his Boys Town opponent. Rich, who has an impressive record for a sophomore, should be one of the dependables next year.

After three years of ranking first in Intercity competition, South High's Reserve wrestlers tied with North High this season.

South won from Central 47–5; Lincoln Central, 47–5; North, 33–12; Boys Town, 31–18 and 23–22; T.J., 55–3 and 38–8; A.L., 45–3 and 31–13; Tech, 44–11. The Packers were tripped by Central, 26–28; and North, 21–23.

Undefeated were William Gorgen, with an 11–0 record; and Tony Ziccardi, 8–0. Jerry Barrett scored 10 wins and one loss; and Robert Swanberg, nine wins, one loss and one tie. Jim Hoffman, freshman, was undefeated in Reserve team competition and lost only one match after he was promoted to the Varsity squad.

These five boys should give the Packer team added strength next year.

ACTIV

ITIES

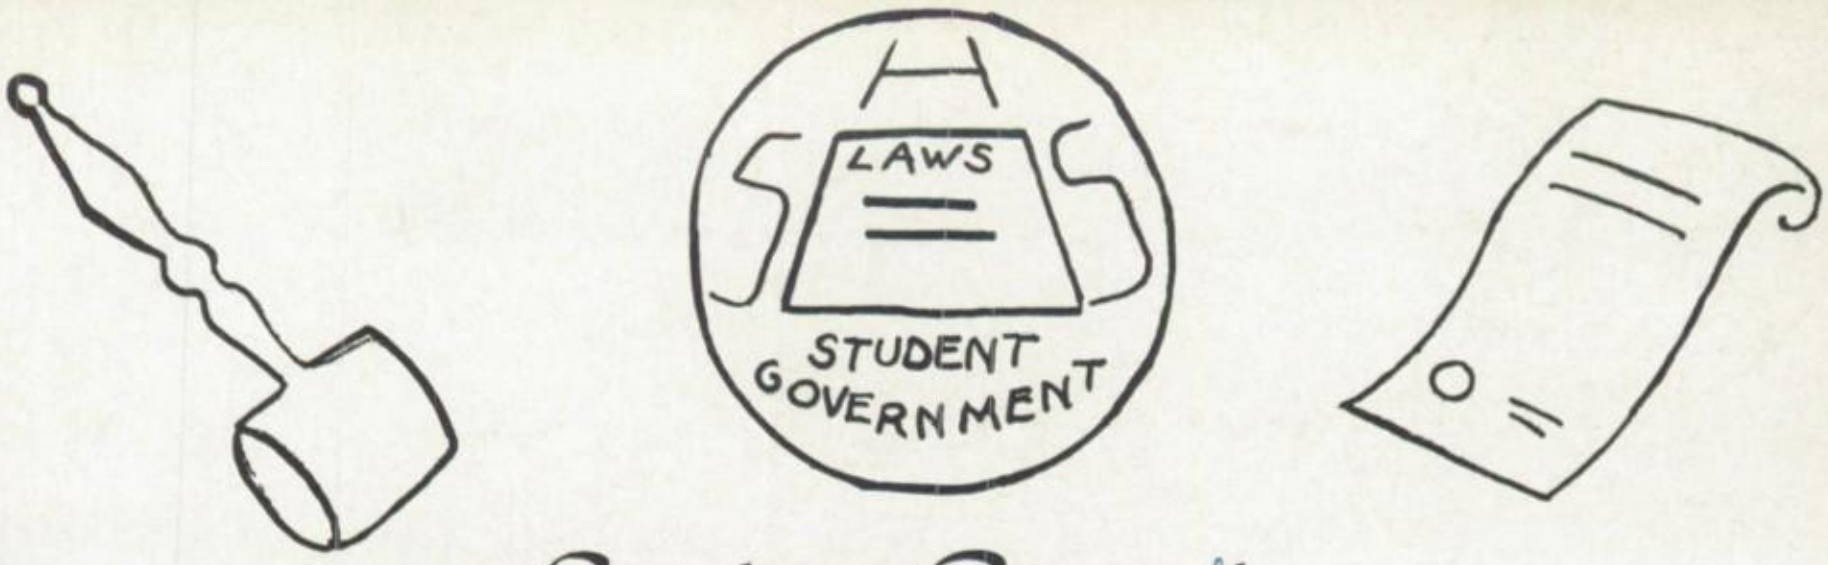
South High's seventh annual Homecoming coronation was held on the night of November 9, 1956, in Gym 310.

The 1955 Homecoming Queen, Rose Sena Salerno, and King, Don Marquez, ascended the throne to await the new royalty, Joyce Paulson and Jerry Gould.

The King and Queen's royal attendants, who were candidates for Homecoming royalty, were Counts and Countesses Jim Yelnek and Judy Kavan, Mike Mancuso and Carole Benak, Ray Chlupacek and Linda Zoeller, and Larry Kozeny and Delores Dropinski. The Queen's attendant was Charlotte Mears.

King Jerry and Queen Joyce, elected by an all school vote, joined their court in the first dance of the evening to "Teen-Age Prayer." South's Dance Band provided the music for the remainder of the evening.

This Homecoming marked the conclusion of the 1956 football season.



Student Council

The main objective of the Student Council is to bring about a spirit of co-operation among students, between students and faculty, and between students and the administration. The members are selected by their classmates once each semester.

Boys' Gym

Boys' gym classes at South High have a varied and highly organized intra-mural program. Each group is divided into teams which assume the names of leading colleges or universities.

"Wyoming" the winning basketball team which remained undefeated throughout the four weeks of cage training and play, is pictured above.

In the wrestling competition there were individual champs as well as team champs in every class. Those meriting the title of "Champion" were:

"Nebraska," the title chosen by one of the groups in the Monday, Wednesday, Friday, second period class, topped all others with 40 points.

Concert

The South High School Concert Band, directed by Instrumental Instructor Hamilton B. Smith, is made up of 75 young musicians, selected for their proficiency on one or more instruments.

This group plays at such events as the annual Christmas Program, the Military Ball, the Spring Concert and special activity programs.

Participation in this organization aids in the development of the fundamental musical skills, for these Southites learn to play all types of music, from jazz to classical and spend long hours in perfecting their techniques.

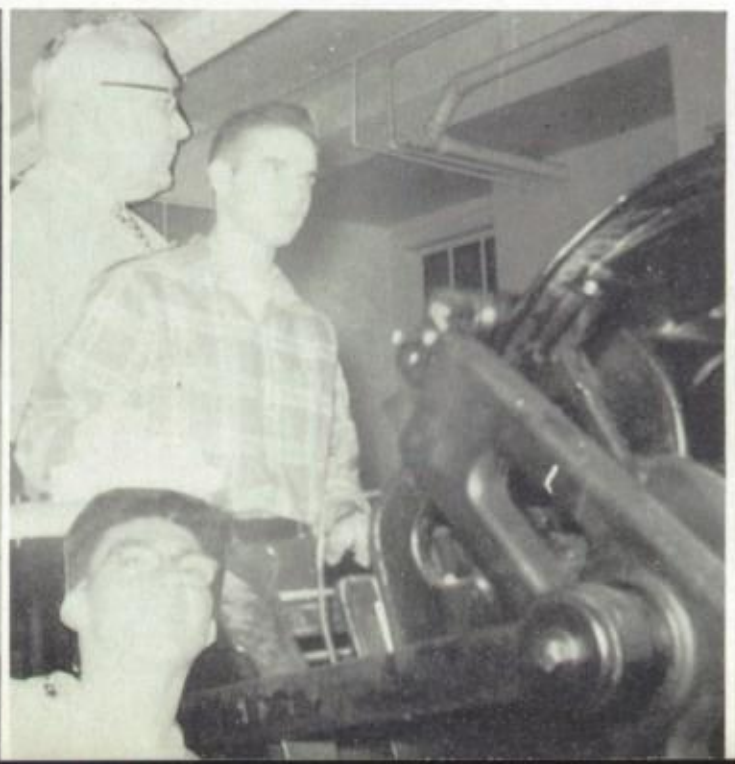
South High Tooter

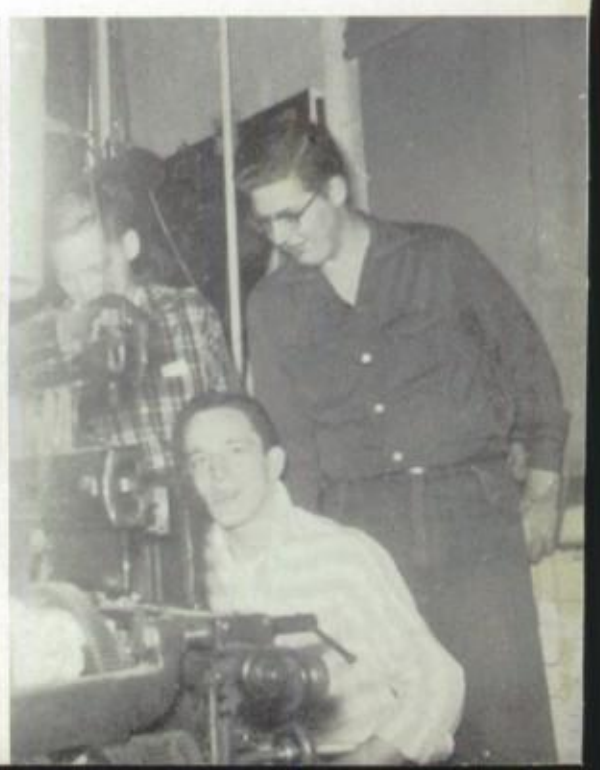
Vol. 54 South High School, Omaha, Nebraska, September 1956-June 1957 Nos. 1-18

No matter how hard the work seems to Managing Editor Jim Yelnek, News Editor Linda Strnad, Assistant Advertising Manager Pat Ryan, Feature Editor Clem Kisicki, Editor-in-Chief Mickey Brown, Exchange Editor Phyllis Parrill and Advertising Manager Fran McCarty there is always time to stop and smile. Tooter sponsor Miss Margaret McMartin keeps busy checking copy. Business Manager Lois Lange and Sports Editor Kenny Keast spot the word that has Circulation Editor Anne Lienemann baffled.

The South High Tooter is published bi-weekly by the journalism classes and printing shop of South High. The high lights of the journalism year came with the state and local press conventions. At the state meet in Lincoln on November 9 and 10, Fran McCarty won second place in an advertising contest and Mickey Brown, third place in the editorial competition. At the local conference on February 23, Jim Yelnek won second place in editorial writing and Mickey Brown, third place in news writing. The staff also won three honorable mentions.

Make-up and pressmen Gary Ciochon, Tom Dropinski, Barney Chandler, Gary Ryan and Alan Sole wait for Print Instructor F.A. Huggenberger and Shop Foreman Jerry Malolepszy to yell "Start Printing," while Photographer John McGinty and Linotype men Bill Cunningham, Kenny Keast and Dennis Drain look on.





Connie Hohenhouse types up pages as Virginia Schroeder, Carol Chance and Rexonna Reed offer friendly suggestions.

New Addition

Now in blueprint form is the new addition to South High School, which promises to be one of the most modern buildings in the South Omaha area.

Completion of the building project in 1959 will provide South High with 33 new classrooms, more spacious instrumental and music rooms, a second gymnasium with new girls' locker rooms, and a modern auditorium with nearly double the present seating space and a larger, more adequate stage.

Spring Concerts

The instrumental and vocal music departments presented their annual Spring Concerts in the school auditorium on May 9 and 15, respectively.

Including such numbers as "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Let There Be Music," "The Twenty-Third Psalm," "The Pines of Home," and "Joobalai," the vocal department backed the theme, "Music for a May Night." Along with the four choirs, accompanied by Miss Carile Samuel, a girls' sextet, a boys' octet and an instrumental group added to the enjoyment of the audience.

The orchestra displayed its symphonic skill with a program including "The March of the Little Tin Soldiers," "Poem" and others.

Variety being the key word for the latter half of the program, the band continued with numbers including and ranging from "The Student Prince" to calypso in the form of the "Banana Boat Song." Adding to this concert were selections by a vocal group.

Under the direction of Vocal Instructor Roland E. Hinrichs and Instrumental Director Hamilton B. Smith, the concerts are indeed worthy of special remembrance.

Baseball

South High's 1957 baseball team finished the season as the experts predicted, in first place. Solid hitting and tight pitching were the key factors in the Packers' drive for the pennant. South batters led the league in home runs with ten, while hurlers Bill Kadereit and Larry Kozeny chalked up the best pitching records in the circuit.

Coach Cornie Collin's crew started the season off on the right foot by blasting the Central Eagles 16–3. In a return match the Packers won by a 3–2 score.

Benson took advantage of some South miscues, and along with a little luck were able to edge by the Red and White nine 9–8. However, in their return meet pitcher Bill Kadereit slammed the door on the Bunnies 4–0.

North was the Packers' third and last foe of the season, and the Vikes were expected to give South the most trouble of any team. But South emerged victorious both times by scores of 6–4 and 5–3.

In their first meet against Tech Coach Collin's crew had a field day as they blasted the Trojans 13–2 on 16 hits. In the second game a three-run fourth inning gave South a 4–3 win.

Two field days of opposite sorts were characterized in the South versus Creighton Prep meetings. In the first contest the Packers blasted five home runs, the most by any ball club this year. John Faiman, Bill Kadereit, Carl Rezac, Vic Shukis and Ron Swanson were the circuit clouters as South won 8–1. In the return match the Bluejays took an eight inning pitcher's duel, 2–1.

Buzz Kozeny twirled a beautiful three-hit shutout against Lincoln Northeast, giving the Packers a 2–0 victory. Lincoln Central was a 4–3 victim.

Three of the Packers were named on the World-Herald All-City squad. Larry Kozeny, who received more votes than any other member, was selected as the league's best pitcher. First baseman Ron Swanson and third baseman Carl Rezac were the other Southites who received honor berths.

RECOGNITION NIGHT

On the night of May 22, the awards for Outstanding Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior and South High Cadet of the ROTC program were announced.

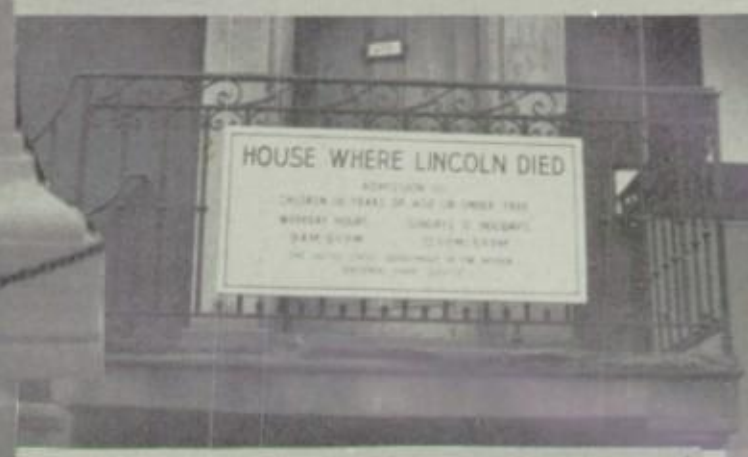
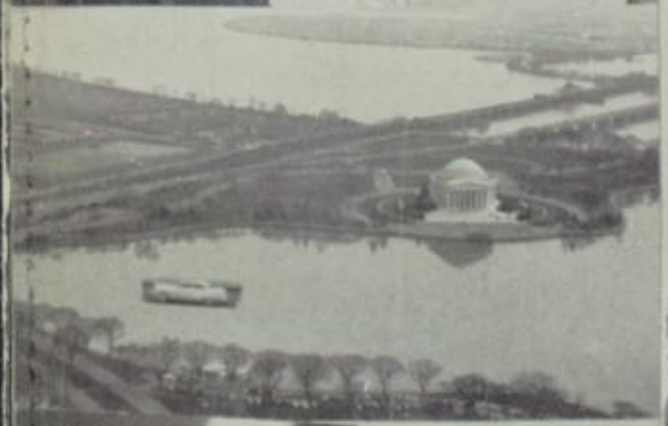
In the lower right, Outstanding Freshman Honesto Simon is congratulated by Principal Richard C. Krebs.





During Spring Vacation (March 24-31) Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Kuncel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christie sponsored sixty-five juniors and seniors on an historical tour to Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., and New York City.

The center group picture was taken on the front steps of the Capitol after the Southites had been entertained for breakfast by Senator Roman Hruska (lower left).

The South High travelers left the Burlington Station March 24 at 12:45 p.m. and returned home one week later at 5:30 p.m.

The unanimous comment was ----- "We had a wonderful time"!

SPRING PLAY

Our play of life was boosted by the dramatics department on May 3 and 4, at 8 p.m., on the South High stage.

Under the direction of Curtis Siemers, dramatics coach, fifteen Southite thespians presented SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE, a mysterious comedy, written by Earl Derr Biggers and dramatized by George M. Cohan. Mr. Joseph Reeves and his stage crew constructed the set and handled the lighting.

SPRING CONCERTS

On the warm evening of May 11, at 8:30, the students of Mr. Hamilton B. Smith, South High instrumental music instructor, presented a band and orchestra concert in the Packer auditorium.

Members of the Prep Band, South High School Orchestra and Concert Band performed, playing classical, martial and popular selections.

Between the orchestra and band numbers, a vocal quartet--Leroy Galloway, Karen Larsen, Mary Patterson and Bill Poppen--sang "I Wish I Was."

At eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, May 16, the South High School Department of Vocal Music presented "A Festival of Song." The students of Miss Carile Samuel and Mr. Roland E. Hinrichs filled the school auditorium with religious, classical, light opera and popular songs.

Appearing were the Second Girls' Choir, the Girls' Choir, the Second Choir, a Girls' Sextet, a Boys' Quartet, an Instrumental Ensemble and, finally, South's First Choir.

ALL-GIRLS PARTY

This annual fete was attended by approximately 500 Southite girls.

The girls taking all the honors for their costumes were Miss Mary Kass, in a cave woman outfit, "Funniest"; Catherine Mudra, in a Chinese kimona, "Prettiest"; The Gaude Sisters, dressed as a pink elephant, and Patty Betts and Virginia Milacheck, decked out as an old-fashioned telephone, were noted the "Best Couple."

Roxann Wolfsbauer, Rosemary Svajgl, Norma Willuhn, Bonnie Tatman, Rose McHarry, Bonnie Miller, Dolores Mayhan, and Rose and Carmen Sena were voted "Best Group" for their chain gang.

1956 SOUND OFF

Seven Southite lasses from different eras, Barbara Woodcook, Rae Watts, Barbara Mandle, Judy Schroeder, Reta Ryan, Joyce Paulson and Joni Kucera, are shown here with a fine supporting cast.

South's annual Sound Off was presented on March 15 and 16. The show, which has "Street Scenes" as its theme, consisted of 20 acts which revealed the obvious talents of South High's students.

Dramatics coach Mrs. Leonore Paasch, the student directors and the entire cast deserve recognition for producing such a fine show. Our appreciation is extended also to Mr. Joseph Reeves and his stage crew for handling the scenery and lighting so capably.

TRACK

Ed Hubbard was the star of the 1956 South High track team. While all the squad members tried hard to gain points, Ed won a Gold Medal in the state meet and placed second in the city competition in the 440-yard dash.

Tom Taylor, who sped to a :22.7 victory in the 220-yard dash when the Packers met Central and Benson in the triangular meet, now looks like South's big threat for state honors next season.

Mel Elliott, 880-yard runner, was the other Southite cinderman to garner points.

Coach Cletus Fischer predicts a good showing next year, with more lettermen returning and track interest at South on the upsurge.

TENNIS TEAM

Members of the 1956 South High Girls' Tennis Team, directed by Miss Elinor Bennett, played four matches during the regular season. In the tournament which ended league play, Karen Larsen reached the semifinals.

GOLF TEAM

South High golfers finished the season with a 3-4 record, ending fifth in the Intercity race.

George Radik led the team with the lowest average, 39. He also placed fourth in the city meet. Dick Leutzinger came in seventh in the state.

Coach Willis Brown will have three lettermen returning in 1957.

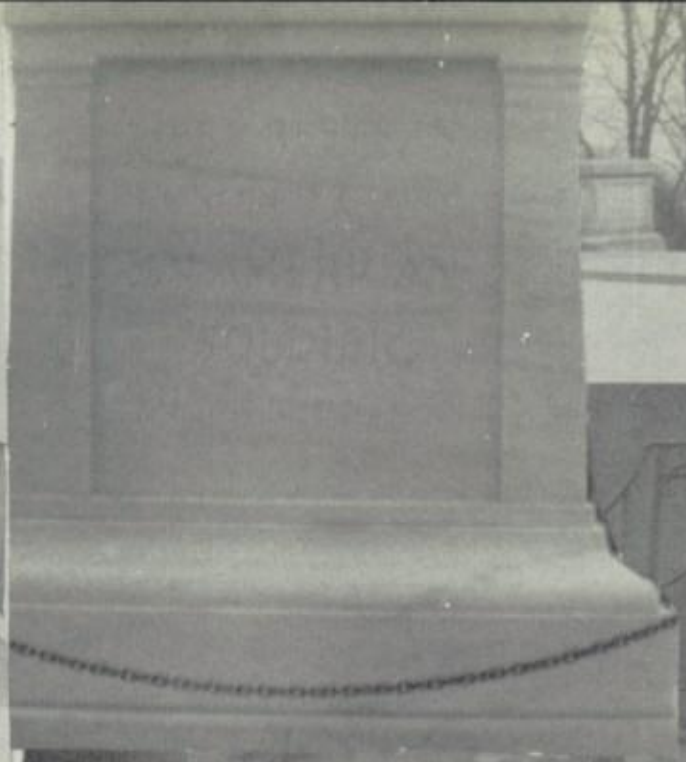
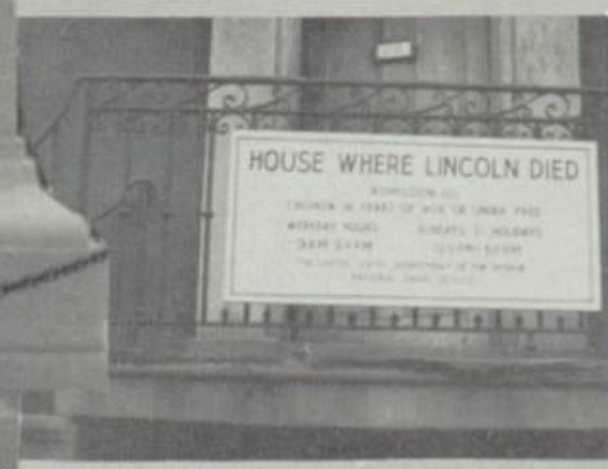
Climaxing the announcement of James Melsa as Cadet Lt. Colonel, all officers and their ladies joined in a well-executed grand march.





During Spring Vacation (March 24-31) Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Kuncel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christie sponsored sixty-five juniors and seniors on an historical tour to Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Pa., and New York City.

Just the week before school was to close, all Southite faculty members and students were saddened by the sudden death of Mr. B.O. Prochaska, who had taught science and mathematics at South High since 1927. Mr. Prochaska, a teacher for 45 years, died on May 29, after being stricken with a heart attack early that morning.

Both children of Mr. Prochaska, Mrs. Elaine Ackerman, who died in December 1955, and Burdell, who resides in Long Beach, California, attended South High School, as have his grandchildren, Karen and Kenneth Ackerman. Kenny was graduated with the June 1956 class.

BACCALAUREATE

At 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 3, Baccalaureate Services were conducted for the 1956 Senior Class of South High School at the Technical High School Auditorium. The Reverend Arthur H. Pinkall, D.D., Pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, and the Reverend William Kelley, S.J., Dean of Creighton College, Creighton University, addressed the congregation. The First Girls' Choir, directed by Southite music instructor Roland E. Hinrichs and accompanied by Miss Carile Samuel, sang "Lord of Our Life" and "Holy Redeemer."

COMMENCEMENT

Finally, at 8 p.m. on the evening of June 8, South High's 476 graduating seniors entered the Technical High School Auditorium in their caps and gowns.

Senior Class speakers, James Melsa and Nancy Warren addressed their classmates and the commencement audience on "The Task Remaining Before Us" and "When We Dream," respectively.
